

Activities:

F.4 students are going to share their views on different social issues happening around us every day. This morning F.4 Group 1 students brought out the issue about the effects of using plastics on our planet. They showed some facts and figures to show the harmfulness of using plastics. Planet or plastics?

