

Activities:

During these two days, students would bring along their English Passwords record sheets to the prize redemption table. If students are able to put down all the passwords given out in the English Wednesday assemblies, they can get a prize for the efforts they have made in this activity. Many students felt delighted after they had redeemed the prizes. Thank you for the teachers and student helpers working together to make the activity successful.